Half-day alternative Cusco city tour

Katy has spent more than a decade exploring, guiding, and writing about Cusco, meeting and hiring the best guides along the way. This is the ultimate local's tour of Cusco.

Want to get your hands on liver-cleansing frog juice, dried guinea pig entrails, spectacularly tasteless plasticware, or remarkably ornate religious candles? Then this is the tour for you!

Where old and new worlds collide, in the crowded streets around Cusco's central market, there are many random things to see, and we have to choose just some – so please, let us know what interests you and we'll be delighted to incorporate it as we go along!

The tour generally includes cobbled backstreet strolls, hole-in-the-wall outlets for live and cooked guinea pig, spells, flowers, crazy soups and lots more; traditional crafts and amazing hyper-modern religious art, and a visit to an artisan's workshop.

We always finish up with a massive traditional lunch at a local favourite restaurant (one Katy left out of the Lonely Planet guide because we don't want to share it with too many tourists!)
